

Diamond Lil 75th Anniversary 2016 CAF AirPower History Tour

Branson, MO
Sept. 2-4
Labor Day Weekend

*Ride on B-24 Liberator
"Diamond Lil", a B-25
Mitchell, P-51 Mustang,
TBM Avenger, and more!*

FREE Tour with Admission

B-24 Liberator Diamond Lil

Americans built 18,482 B-24 Liberators between 1940-1945, the most produced aircraft in U.S. history. Today, Diamond Lil is one of only two B-24 Liberators still flying. Built in 1941, Diamond Lil is the oldest operational World War II four-engine bomber in the world.

B-25 Mitchell Show Me

P-51 Mustang Gunfighter

TBM Avenger

Branson Airport, Branson Jet Center, 130 Wright Brothers Road, Hollister, MO 65672

Friday, Sept. 2 * 2 pm to 5 pm

Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 3-4 * 9 am to 5 pm

Ramp access: $15 Adults / $5 Youth age 11-17

Daily Event & Parking Info:
Branson Airport 888-359-2541

More info and book rides at:
www.AirPowerTour.org

A portion of event proceeds donated toward supporting the Branson Veterans Task Force
www.bransonwarplanes.com